WELCOME TO TURKEY

Turkey is a spectacular country where fantastic archaeological sites mingle with the natural beauty of pine-clad hillsides and long wide beaches. Istanbul is a buzzing, atmospheric mix of ancient and modern where in the same day you can be fascinated by the Blue Mosque or the harem of Topkapi Palace, then shop for the latest designer wear in Cehavir Mall, the largest mall in Europe. Istanbul is a great destination, but beware; it's a busy, vibrant city, and you'll need a few days of relaxation before heading home. Luckily, our coastal resorts of, and around, Bodrum, Fethiye, Marmaris, Antalya and Side, feature luxurious, predominantly five star, hotels on the beach where you'll be spoilt by sun, sand, sea and spas. Additionally, to enjoy the very best of Turkish hospitality, simply book a cabin on a gulet cruise.

ISTANBUL

Formerly known as both Byzantium and Constantinople, Istanbul is a vibrant and historic city providing an enchantingly exotic blend of Eastern and Western cultures. It is the only city in the world to straddle two continents. Delightfully situated on hilly terrain with the busy Bosphorus Strait cutting through Europe to the west and Asia to the east, this fascinating city leaves visitors with truly unforgettable memories and a definite will to return. The old city of Istanbul is simply crammed with interesting sights just waiting to be discovered: there's the museum of Sancta Sophia with its outstanding freestanding dome, the 17th century Blue Mosque famed for its splendid blue Iznik tiles, Topkapi Palace with its famous harem, and the extensive Ottoman residence of Dolmabahce Palace. As we tailor-make all our holidays, we are delighted to book Istanbul as a city break, or you can combine it as part of a two centre holiday with some relaxation by the beach. Simply fly from Istanbul to Bodrum, Dalaman or Antalya to enjoy the beaches, indulgent spas, and land and water sports on these beautiful Aegean, Turquoise or Mediterranean coastlines.

BODRUM & AEGEAN COAST

The Bodrum peninsula boasts a plethora of ancient archaeological sites, nearly 200km of coastline, and more than 30 delightful islands. Beach resorts range from the bustling and trendy to the tranquil and traditional, and whilst glorious golden sand and pebble beaches abound, there are also quiet bays and secluded coves discoverable only by boat. In addition to a wonderful climate and fantastic scenery, there are delightful waterfront restaurants, friendly bars and fantastic shopping, especially in Bodrum with its covered bazaar, boutiques and markets. The tranquil resort of Yalicifluk offers quiet, uncrowded pebble beaches, a few restaurants, and a peaceful way of life. The second largest town in the region, Turgutreis features a sophisticated marina with fine restaurants, waterfront cafés, bars and exclusive boutiques, and a long sand and shingle beach shelving gently into the sea.

Bodrum

DALAMAN & TURQUOISE COAST

This southwest corner of Turkey boasts traditional charming villages, secluded sophisticated resorts for discerning travellers and bustling coast resorts, perfect for families. Gocek with its stylish hotels, chic restaurants and upmarket boutiques, boasts the most delightful marina and it's easy to book a yacht or gulet cruise to discover the coast and beautiful islands dotted around Gocek Bay. Further south in another scenic bay, Fethiye features cobbled streets, a ruined hill fortress and numerous restaurants and bars which line its own bustling harbour. To the south of Fethiye, the magnificent Oludeniz lagoon is picture-postcard pretty with stunning aquamarine waters against a backdrop of dramatic pine-clad hills. In a stunning coastal setting, the lively resort of Marmaris boasts a long man made sand and shingle beach and a traditional quarter brimming with authentic character. Just 8km away, Icmeler is set in a wide sweeping bay against a backdrop of rugged mountains where you can relax on the sand and shingle beach beside the shallow calm waters and Hisaronu, a family friendly resort, offers restaurants, bars, shops and lively nightlife. This area is particularly popular for gulet cruising – see pages 14-15 for details of our cabin charter gulet itineraries.

ANTALYA & MEDITERRANEAN COAST

This part of the Mediterranean coast known as the Turkish Riviera boasts stunning mountain scenery, beautiful beaches, secluded coves, and vast pine forests that are home to a myriad of flora and fauna. Coupled with numerous historical sites and a plethora of watersports, it simply provides the perfect holiday destination. Antalya, the largest city on the Mediterranean, is a thriving modern city with an interesting historic past and a stylish and award winning marina with a myriad of waterfront cafés, restaurants and vibrant nightlife. The superb beach resort of Lara, 12km east of Antalya, features a beautiful long stretch of beach and wonderfully stylish and luxurious hotels and there's a small selection of bars and restaurants in Lara Beach, although nightlife is low key and mainly centred around the hotels. Turkey's premier golf resort, Belek, lies 30km from Antalya in a beautifully tranquil setting with a backdrop of mountains, fragrant pine forests and a glorious and golden coarse sandy beach and where lavish beach front hotels provide a myriad of land and sea based activities, excellent spas and, ideal for families, many offer an all inclusive option including children's clubs and activities. Set on a small peninsula, 75km east of Antalya, Side is a popular resort with a lovely mix of modern and ancient. This charming town boasts modern beachfront hotels, impressive and well-preserved Roman remains, two glorious beaches and a picturesque harbour with an excellent selection of restaurants and bars.

CLIMATE

The Mediterranean and Aegean coasts experience hot, dry summers. Mild winters last only from December to March, although midwinter in the capital, Istanbul can be much cooler.

CUISINE

Turkey boasts a wide variety of restaurants ranging from sophisticated gourmet restaurants and chic cafés, to waterfront fish restaurants, local neighbourhood lokantas and authentic kebab houses. Traditional cuisine tends to be seasonal and each region boasts its own specialities. A meal starts with mezze, a selection of small appetisers including vine leaves, aubergines, simple dips and deliciously filled savoury pastries. Main courses include fresh fish, lamb or chicken prepared in a variety of ways although most often served as chicken kebabs or kofte, small lamb burgers. Dessert menus normally consists of fresh fruit, sutlac, a milky rice pudding, and baklava, layers of filo pastry with honey soaked pistachios, and Turkish Delight. Turkish tea is black with sugar, and Turkish coffee is served in a variety of strengths: sade, plain, orta, with a touch of sugar, or sekerli, very sweet. Although predominantly a Muslim country, alcohol is widely available in hotels and tourist resorts. The traditional spirit is the aniseed based raki and in addition to imported labels, there are less expensive, Turkish red and white wines, and locally brewed Efes beer.

LIRA, LANGUAGE, RELIGION & VISAS

The new Turkish Lira, Yeni Turk Lira, divided into 100 kuruş, is available from ATM machines with English instructions, and banks. Tipping provides many Turks with a large percentage of their income and although a hefty tip will be included in your restaurant bill, it is customary that you leave an additional tip for good service. Credit cards are widely accepted in Istanbul and resort areas, although if you veer off the beaten track it's a good idea to take cash. Turkish is the official language although English is relatively widely understood in hotels and resort areas. Turkey is 99% Muslim and although visitors are welcome to visit mosques, it is expected that everyone will adhere to strict clothing guidelines including the removal of shoes and the covering of arms, legs and (women's) heads. British passport holders must purchase sticker type visas on entry to Turkey (at time of printing £10 or €15 in cash).

Beach at Voyage Torba (p35)

SHOPPING

Street markets and bazaars are perfect for holiday trinkets and memorabilia, whilst designer label hunters will be in paradise amongst the boutiques and world class malls in Istanbul.

GOLF

Turkey is emerging as a golf destination with two courses just outside Istanbul, two in Bodrum and 10 international standard courses in Belek near Antalya where the wonderful surroundings of the Mediterranean Sea and the fragrant pine forests are backed by the magnificent Taurus Mountains. For further information about golf, including carriage of clubs and tee time bookings, please contact our reservations team.

DIVING

There are many dive centres offering PADI certified courses, and with crystal clear, warm waters and good visibility, diving is popular especially around Fethiye and Oludeniz where there's wall and reef dives, drop-offs, caverns, canyons and swim throughs, and a colourful marine life including octopus, scorpion fish, stingray and turtles. Please note that due to the amount of underwater antiquities, scuba diving is only permitted in authorised areas.

WEDDINGS & HONEYMOONS

Our dedicated weddings coordinator can help arrange your wedding in Turkey ensuring that you and your family and friends enjoy not only a fantastic day, but also a fabulous holiday. Our luxury hotels are perfect for honeymooners and anniversary treats, offering spectacular surroundings, romantic restaurants and attentive service plus a superb choice of superior rooms and suites. Please see the Classic value sections on our hotel pages for specific details of complimentary room upgrades, flowers and sparkling wines, especially for honeymooners, and do let us know that you are booking your honeymoon so that we can inform the hotel, although do note that you may be required to show proof of your recent marriage upon arrival.

CLASSIC TAILOR-MADE SERVICE

Our customers expect excellence, and from the moment that you contact us, you'll know that we offer a professional and flexible service. We know and love our resorts and hotels, and if there's any additional detail that you need, we'll simply contact our overseas staff or hotel partners to ensure that you are booking exactly the holiday you've dreamed about. We can easily book a scheduled, charter or no frills flight from your local airport, and we normally include private airport transfers for your arrival and departure, although we can book a hire car if you prefer. All our hotels have superb choices of premier rooms, junior suites and suites – sometimes even presidential suites! And to ensure that you make the most of your holiday, we include a complimentary mini-guide book with your travel documents and once in resort, there's a representative eager to help.

FLIGHTS FROM ALL UK AIRPORTS: YOUR CHOICE

There are so many airlines to choose from and we are able to include any available flight in your holiday. Please see page 71 for further flight and upgrade details including services provided by scheduled, no frills or charter airlines.

AIRPORT HOTELS, PARKING & LOUNGES

We want your holiday to start the moment that you leave home and through our travel partners FHR, we are able to offer a choice of airport hotels and car parks in the UK. Also, through our travel partners, Lounge Pass, we are delighted to offer an airport lounge facility both in the UK and at the majority of our overseas airports. Booking an airport lounge means that you can avoid the crowds and relax with complimentary drinks and newspapers in an exclusive airport lounge until it is time for your flight.

PRIVATE TRANSFERS & CAR HIRE

Most of our holidays automatically include private transfers from the airport to your chosen hotel so you will arrive feeling refreshed and ready to enjoy your holiday. In some destinations, these private transfers may be operated by public taxi or minibus although they will always be arranged for your own private use. You may also book car hire for the duration of your holiday and if you pre-book our recommended car hire and therefore not make use of our private transfers, we will give you a reduction that equates to the private transfer cost. In order to qualify for this reduction, you must book the car hire with our reservations team at the time you make your booking. See page 71 for details of car hire.

FLEXIBLE DINING

So that you can sample the local restaurants, but still have the option of pre-booking your evening meal in the hotel for some nights, take advantage of our flexible dining plan. You can book as many, or as few, evening meals in the hotel as you wish and you don't even have to tell us for which nights until you arrive at the hotel. Prices for dinner are detailed as half board supplements on each hotel page.

OUR RESORT SERVICE

Our overseas staff love their resorts and will be delighted to share their considerable knowledge with you. Classic customers tend to be well-seasoned travellers and, because we know that you prefer to exercise your independence, our resort management services are discreet and unobtrusive. We generally endeavour to contact you at the beginning of your stay to ensure that everything is to your liking and will be delighted to give advice on places to visit, sights to see, traditional restaurants, local wines and culinary tips. Additionally you'll be given a 24-hour local contact number in case you need additional assistance during your holiday.

EXCURSIONS

Excursions can easily be booked once you are in resort, however, to pre-book your excursions, or for more information, please contact our reservations team on 0800 008 7288.

BROCHURE DETAILS & PRICES

We take great care in producing our brochures and meticulously check every detail. Although our guide prices are correct at time of printing, it is inevitable that prices and details will change after going to press. We will confirm the current price when you book, and as part of our commitment to high quality customer service, we will advise you of changes to any relevant details. Please do note that all holidays and Classic value offers shown in this brochure are subject to availability.

WHEN TO TRAVEL

Many destinations in this brochure feature hotels which provide year-round holidays, but you may find that in some resorts there are fewer facilities and attractions available during low season. The choice of restaurants in some hotels may be limited during quieter periods and some activities may be restricted by seasonal demand. If a particular hotel facility or a specific feature or attraction in your chosen resort will be important to the enjoyment of your holiday, please discuss this with us at the time that you book.

100% FINANCIAL PROTECTION

All the flight inclusive holidays within this brochure are financially protected by the ATOL scheme under ATOL number 5837. When you pay you will be supplied with an ATOL certificate (for further information about financial protection please see our booking conditions and www.atol.org.uk). For holidays and travel arrangements which do not include travel by air, your financial protection is administered by the Association of British Travel Agents (ABTA) under membership number W5429. In the unlikely event of our insolvency, the CAA and/or ABTA will ensure that you are not stranded abroad and will arrange to refund any money you have paid to us for an advance booking. ABTA members help holidaymakers get the most from their travel arrangements, and assist them in the unlikely event that things do not go according to plan. Under ABTA's Code of Conduct, we maintain a high standard of service to our customers. For further information about ABTA, the Code of Conduct, and the arbitration scheme, contact ABTA tel 0207 637 2444 or www.abta.com

CLASSIC VALUE

Classic Collection Holidays managers and staff visit each of our destinations personally in order to ensure that we negotiate the best possible terms with our hoteliers. Because of this personal relationship, we are able to negotiate special Classic value offers which are highlighted on each hotel page. These may be in the form of early booking offers, complimentary room upgrades, reduced supplements at certain times of the year etc. And, because we continue to negotiate with our hoteliers after our brochures have been published, we are always in receipt of additional offers which are published on our website and promoted by our reservations staff. Please ensure that you call us to check prices as offers can result in the price reducing from those originally published.

Xanadu Island (p37)

CLASSIC FAMILY

Organising a family or group holiday can be time consuming and stressful and we are here to help take the pressure away from you. Just advise us of the number of people in your group and the dates you would like to travel and we will be happy to discuss various options with you. Although our brochure prices are based on scheduled services from Gatwick, we are able to book domestic connections and international flights from all regional airports, and are happy to organise individual travel arrangements for each member of your group. What better way to celebrate a special anniversary than to bring all your family members together to the destination of your choice! And because we can also offer accommodation only arrangements, family and friends who live overseas can book their own flights leaving us to organise their hotel arrangements. Simply contact our groups department who'll be delighted to help.

CHILD PRICES

Many of our hotels offer reductions to the first child (normally aged 2-11 years) when they share a room with two adults or two full fare paying passengers and relevant 7-night child prices are shown in the price grids on each hotel page. The Classic value section also details where reductions are available for older children and teenagers. Children enjoying reduced child prices can only be accommodated where there is sufficient space in a room and it may be that a child price can only be given in a superior or deluxe room or suite because the standard room can only accommodate two guests. Where there is sufficient space in a room for four occupants, a reduction may be available for a second child. Many child-friendly hotels offer substantial reductions to children staying in separate rooms (ie, not sharing with an adult) and some hotels are willing to give discounts or even free stays to children sharing a room with one adult (although normally under these circumstances the adult will pay the equivalent of a sole use supplement). Our reservations are happy to help you choose the best hotel for your family, and as we only have space within this brochure to give first child 7-night prices simply contact us for price quotations for alternative durations and additional child prices.

CLASSIC VALUE FOR FAMILIES

Normally a child sharing with two adults or full fare paying passengers will pay a reduced price as shown under the price panel section on each hotel page. However, in some instances hotels offer substantial reductions for the first child (aged 2-11), or special reductions for a second child, or a child sharing with only one adult, or special reductions for children in separate or interconnecting rooms, and/or special half board reductions for children, and we have endeavoured to highlight these hotels under our Classic value on each relevant hotel page. Please call our reservations department so that our staff can help you book the best holiday to suit your family requirements.

SOLE OCCUPANCY

Whether travelling alone or with friends and family, some of our guests prefer not to share a bedroom or suite and where applicable, and where space allows, supplements are shown for single rooms and twin rooms or suites for sole occupancy. Our Classic value section also highlights where there are special reductions for sole occupancy at certain times of the year. Please note that brochure holiday prices are based on two adults travelling together and quotations for single travellers will include an additional charge payable for sole use of a private transfer when applicable.

CLASSIC GULET CRUISING

Gulets are sophisticated versions of traditional Turkish fishing vessels, and gulet cruising provides a delightfully unique and relaxing way to discover the magnificent Aegean coastline. We are delighted to offer cabin charters on standard gulets, and luxury or deluxe gulets for exclusive hire. The most popular itineraries begin and end in Marmaris, visiting Fethiye and Oludeniz, or Datca and the Greek Islands of Symi and Rhodes, although itineraries starting and finishing in Bodrum are also popular. You can fly directly from the UK to Dalaman specifically for a one week gulet cruise or, as we tailor-make our holidays, you can choose to combine your gulet cruise with a stay in Istanbul or in any of our beach resorts.

GULET CRUISING

A gulet cruise provides the perfect holiday experience for you to relax in the sun or enjoy a plethora of watersports including scuba diving, snorkelling, swimming, canoeing and fishing. The whole Aegean coastline is blessed with fantastic scenery and there are numerous ancient and historic sites to visit, plus you can't fail to enjoy the whole Turkish experience from the energetic friendliness of the people, their culture, their customs and their delicious cuisine. Depending on your itinerary there will be different highlights along the way with varying itineraries with options allowing you to decide how best to spend each day. For example on the second day sailing from Marmaris to Fethiye you could simply relax on the boat, or soak up the sun on the beach in beautiful Ekincik Bay, or you could book the delightful optional excursion upriver to Dalyan which takes in Iztuzu Beach famed for its Caretta Caretta loggerhead sea turtles, the protected reed beds that run the length of the river, and the best examples of Lycian rock tombs together with the ruins of Caunos. Whichever options you choose each day, make sure you take a camera: the coastal scenery is spectacular, the people as handsome as they are engaging, the markets colourful, the sea blue, and the sunsets perfect.

CHOICE OF GULET

We offer cabins on standard gulets ranging from 22m to 24m in length featuring from six to nine cabins housing groups of up to 18 guests. All standard gulet guest cabins are equipped with shower and wc and in addition to the guest cabins, gulets generally comprise a saloon with television and music system, a dining area and bar, plus sun deck with loungers. Snorkelling and fishing gear is often included. We generally book cabin charters where Classic customers join other guests on a standard gulet, but we can also charter luxury or deluxe gulets on an exclusive basis for families or groups of friends. Simply call us with your requirements.

DAILY ROUTINE

Hugging the delightful Turkish coastline, gulets normally visit two or three bays every day, mooring up for the night in a beautiful cove or at one of the chic marinas en route. Breakfast, lunch, afternoon tea and evening meals including tea and coffee, are included on board as part of your gulet experience. Local and imported wines, beers and spirits are available on board and paid for locally. The crew prepare and serve all meals which include delicious spreads of fresh salads, grilled meats, seafood, freshly caught local fish, and tasty Turkish specialities, plus for afternoon tea, the crew serve biscuits and cakes.

THE CREW

All crew members are fully qualified and experienced, and the skippers, who are normally Turkish, have extensive knowledge of the seas in which they sail. The captain and his crew do all the cooking, cleaning and sailing (occasionally powered by the wind, but mostly by motor), although if you wish to do a bit of steering or hoisting, the captain will be more than happy for you to join in. Although your holiday price includes the services of your crew, you may well wish to consider that tips do form a substantial part of their income.

GULET ITINERARIES

We offer three different 7 night itineraries on standard gulets:

Marmaris/Fethiye/Marmaris gulet cruises with air-conditioning depart on a Saturday, although this same itinerary can be booked on gulets without air conditioning to depart on Monday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Bodrum/Gokova/Bodrum gulet cruises (without air-conditioning) depart on Monday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday. All departures, with the exception of Saturdays, are on request.

PRICES

As gulet cruise prices vary dependent upon route, time of year and whether or not they include air-conditioning, simply contact us to discuss your individual requirements and prices. Early booking offers available until 31 March.

TAILOR-MADE TWIN CENTRES

As we tailor-make holidays to your own specific requirements, we can easily offer twin or multi centre holidays. You could fly to Istanbul and spend a few days discovering this amazingly vibrant and historic city, then fly down to Dalaman to embark on your gulet cruise. Alternatively you might like to spend a week on a gulet followed by an even more relaxing beach holiday in any of our coastal resorts. CLASSIC ISTANBUL

Formerly known as Byzantium and Constantinople, Turkey's capital, Istanbul is strategically located on both European and Asian continents on opposing shores of the Bosphorus Strait. This atmospheric city is splendid, magnificent and grand in equal measure boasting numerous UNESCO World Heritage sites, and was the European Capital of Culture in 2010.

Successively known by numerous names including most famously Byzantium, Constantinople and Stamboul, Istanbul is a vibrant and historic city providing an enchantingly exotic blend of Eastern and Western cultures and is the only city in the world straddling two continents. Delightfully situated on a hilly terrain with the busy Bosphorus Strait cutting through Europe to the west and Asia to the east, this fascinating city leaves any visitor with truly unforgettable memories and a will to return.

OLD & MODERN ISTANBUL

The old city of Istanbul is crammed with interesting sights including many UNESCO World Heritage sites. Set on a small peninsula, the historic Sultanahmet area houses the former Christian church, then mosque, now museum, of Sancta Sophia with its outstanding freestanding dome and the Blue Mosque, built in the 17th century by Sultan Ahmet I, famed for its splendid blue Iznik tiles and marvellous stained glass windows. Additional mosques, minarets, museums and sumptuous palaces are just waiting to be discovered, not least Topkapi Palace with its famous harem, and the extensive Ottoman residence of Dolmabahce Palace. The Golden Horn natural harbour in the Bosphorus Strait is best viewed from Galata Tower from which you can see Galata Bridge, Topkapi Palace at Seraglia Point, Sancta Sophia and Blue Mosque in Sultanahmet, and the Asian district of Kadikoy on the opposing shore. Boat excursions along the Bosphorus take in many of the grand palaces and mosques, churches, and waterfront wooden villas known as yalis. The modern part of the city including the Pera area with its imitation palazzo is popular with European residents, and the vibrantly cosmopolitan Taksim Square, in the heart of the modern city, boasts excellent restaurants, bars and cafés.

BAZAARS & SHOPPING

Designer labels abound in Nisantasi district's exclusive boutiques, and there's a myriad of wonderful shopping malls including the largest in Europe, Cevahir Mall, and haggling for traditional mementoes is frantic but fun in the bazaars and the atmospheric Sunday market in Ortakoy. The unique Grand Bazaar offers an energetic experience: it's a self-contained community with cafés, banks even its own mosque, and its warren of streets and alleyways with 4,000 shops sells everything, from souvenir trinkets and backgammon sets, to fantastic gold and silver jewellery and eclectic antiques. The Spice, or Egyptian, Bazaar is vibrant with stalls of dried fruit, nuts and spices: you can even commission custom-made perfume!

TWIN CENTRES

Choose a city break in fast paced Istanbul experiencing mosques and palaces, the Grand Bazaar and authentic Turkish cuisine, or combine a whistle-stop tour of this city with some relaxation. Simply fly from Istanbul to Bodrum, Dalaman or Antalya to enjoy the beaches, indulgent spas, or plethora of land and water based sports. You could even combine a city break or beach holiday with time on a traditional gulet.

Classic Collection Holidays tailor-make all holidays and can book scheduled, charter or no frills flights from your local airport to Istanbul Atatürk and Sabina Gokcen.

ISTANBUL SIGHTS

TOPKAPI PALACE

Completed in 1478, the opulent Topkapi Palace was the residence of the sultans and their court. See sumptuous state rooms, wonderful gardens and the famous harem which would have housed the sultans' wives, concubines and ladies in waiting.

DOLMABAHCE PALACE

Situated along the European shore of the Bosphorus, the extravagant and lavish Dolmabahce Palace was the residence of the last Ottoman sultan.

EPHESUS & PAMUKKALE

SANCTA SOPHIA

Formerly the largest and most important church in the Christian world, Sancta Sophia subsequently became a mosque during the Ottoman Empire when the four minarets were added. Converted to a museum in the 1930's it features well preserved mosaics depicting angels and saints, Madonna and Child, and John the Baptist.

PRINCES ISLANDS

Just off the coast of Istanbul in the Sea of Marmara, nine charming islands with wooded hills, lovely beaches and Ottoman mansions are easily reached by ferry or hydrofoil and provide a peaceful break from the bustling capital.

THE BLUE MOSQUE

In the 16th century, to rival Sancta Sophia, Sultan Ahmet I built Sultanahmet Mosque, the only mosque boasting six minarets, and at the time equal to that of Mecca's Great Mosque. Known as the Blue Mosque it boasts 20,000 exquisite Iznik tiles with colours accentuated by light from the splendid stained glass-windows.

UNDERGROUND CISTERNS

Many underground waterways were built under the Byzantines to ensure supplies of fresh water during possible city sieges; visit the vast Basilica Cistern and Binbirdirek, which boasts 264 columns and a restaurant!

CLASSIC BODRUM & AEGEAN COAST

The birthplace of Herodotus and a major influence in world history, the Bodrum area blends remnants of the ancients with a delightful climate, magnificent beaches, fantastic scenery, charming waterfront restaurants, a plethora of watersports, and markets and bazaars for the most energetic of treasure seekers.

The Bodrum peninsula boasts a plethora of ancient archaeological sites, nearly 200km of coastline, and more than 30 islands. Beach resorts range from the bustling and trendy to the tranquil and traditional, and whilst glorious golden sand and pebble beaches which are perfect for watersports including snorkelling and scuba diving abound, there are also quiet bays and secluded coves discoverable only by boat. In addition to a wonderful climate and fantastic scenery, there are delightful waterfront restaurants, friendly bars and fantastic shopping, especially in Bodrum with its covered bazaar, boutiques and markets.

TURGUTREIS

Named after the renowned 16th century Ottoman Admiral Turgut Reis Pasha, Turgutreis is located on the western tip of the Bodrum peninsula. The second largest town in the region it boasts a sophisticated marina with fine restaurants, waterfront cafés, bars and exclusive boutiques, and a long sand and shingle beach shelving gently into the sea; ideal for watersports enthusiasts and families. A popular Saturday market with stalls of pottery, clothing, leather goods and fresh produce adds to the lively atmosphere, and there's a regular dolmus service taking about 20 minutes to Bodrum which is 20km away.

South of Turgutreis is the small and tranquil village of Akyarlar, boasting a fabulous beach of soft white sands and views of the Greek island of Kos in the distance, plus a handful of shops and bars and a small selection of traditional family run tavernas specialising in freshly caught fish. Located 4km north of Turgutreis is the small beachside village of Kadikalesi with ruins of a castle at the top of the hill, from which splendid views can be enjoyed, an old Roman church and a selection of charming tavernas and bars set along the shoreline.

BODRUM

The upmarket resort of Bodrum boasts a world-class marina where leisurely days and perfect evenings can be whiled away sipping cocktails and watching the world, and luxury yachts and gulets, go by. One of Turkey's most popular resorts, Bodrum with its pretty whitewashed houses covered in bougainvillea is also home to trendy bars and clubs, chic boutiques and sophisticated restaurants, and the whole town is dominated by the Castle of St Peter which overlooks the headland and towers above the streets. Situated 3km west of Bodrum with easy access by dolmus bus and boat services.

YALICIFTLIK

16km east of Bodrum at the mouth of the Gulf of Gokova lies Yaliciftlik, the most tranquil resort on the peninsula offering quiet, uncrowded pebble beaches, a few restaurants, and a peaceful way of life. Secluded coves can be reached by boat from Yaliciftlik, and for nature lovers there are long walks in the beautiful forests and lazy days on the beach.

Classic Collection Holidays tailor-make all holidays and can book scheduled, charter or no frills flights from your local UK airport to Bodrum.

BODRUM & AEGEAN COAST SIGHTS

BODRUM CASTLE

Dominating the skyline of Bodrum, the Castle of St Peter, built by the Knights of St John during the 15th century, is home to a chapel, dungeon, Turkish bath, several impressive towers, and numerous interesting displays of treasures throughout. It also houses the Bodrum Museum of Underwater Archaeology which, amongst its fascinating displays, features remains of the oldest-known sunken ship in the world.

BLUE CRUISE

Charter a traditional gulet from the Bodrum area and cruise around the coast discovering tranquil bays, exotic beaches and secluded islands which are dotted all around the peninsula.

DIDYMA

Built to revere one of the most renowned oracles in the Hellenic world, the Temple of Apollo was never completed due to its ambitious scale. Impressive remains include a Roman Medusa head.

EPHESUS

Turkey's most famous archaeological site, Ephesus, is the best preserved classical city in the Eastern Mediterranean. Built in 1,000 BC and dedicated to Artemis the well-preserved and extensively restored remains include the Library of Celsus and a huge theatre. The Ephesus Museum in Selcuk, 3km away, houses artefacts and mosaics found at the site.

PAMUKKALE & HIERAPOLIS

The cotton castle of Pamukkale is an awe-inspiring natural marvel where calcium rich spring waters stream down a 200m high plateau to a series of hollowed out circular basins. Over centuries the water has hardened into white mineral deposits called travertines which give the terraces a strange snow like beauty. This area was developed as the Roman spa town of Hierapolis, and ancient ruins include the theatre, baths, temples, and a large graveyard. In order to preserve Pamukkale, visitors cannot walk on the terraces but can enjoy the thermal waters of a nearby pool set amongst the ruins of Hierapolis.

CLASSIC DALAMAN & TURQUOISE COAST

Turkey's Turquoise or Lycian Coast boasts sweeping bays and pine clad hills, crystal clear aquamarine waters, verdant valleys and ancient sites dating back to the Lycian era. The scenery is spectacular and many miles of coastline are protected conservation areas, due in part to the presence of loggerhead sea turtles.

This southwest corner of Turkey boasts traditional charming villages, secluded sophisticated resorts for discerning travellers, and bustling coast resorts, perfect for families. Bays and lagoons abound, just waiting to be discovered, and wonderful beaches range from long stretches of coarse golden sands to secluded pebble coves. Watersports including snorkelling, diving, paragliding and white water rafting are popular, as is hiking through the stunning pine clad mountains. Sights include the beautiful coastal lagoon at Oludeniz, the ghost village of Kaya Koyu, the Lycian tombs at Caunos and the Dalyan mud baths.

FETHIYE REGION

Gocek with its stylish hotels, chic restaurants and upmarket boutiques, boasts the most delightful marina and it's easy to book a yacht or gulet cruise to discover the coast and the beautiful islands dotted around Gocek Bay. Further south in another scenic bay, Fethiye boasts cobbled streets, a ruined hill fortress and numerous restaurants and bars which line its own bustling harbour. Traditionally a market town, Fethiye is a popular resort appealing to scuba divers and snorkellers: the nearest beach, Calis, is easily reached by dolmus bus or boat. 12km to the south of Fethiye, the magnificent Oludeniz lagoon is picture-postcard pretty. With stunning aquamarine waters against a backdrop of dramatic pine-clad hills, paragliding over the lagoon is a popular pursuit, and scuba diving and non motorised watersports are prevalent. The main town beach, Belcegiz, is a long sweep of shingle and coarse sand, and bars, shops and restaurants line the promenade.

DALAMAN

Perfect for a peaceful holiday, the new Hilton is situated about 15 minutes' drive from Dalaman and 2km from the village of Osmaniye close to Sarigerme beach. There's easy access to nearby sights including Dalyan's mud baths and Iztuzu beach famed for protected loggerhead sea turtles.

MARMARIS & LORYMA PENINSULA

In a stunning coastal setting where pine clad hills plunge into azure seas, the lively resort of Marmaris boasts a long man made sand and shingle beach and a traditional quarter brimming with authentic character: thriving nightlife is complemented by stylish restaurants and bars along the palm-lined seafront. This area is particularly popular for gulet cruising and Marmaris is home to the largest yachting marina in Turkey - see pages 14-15 for details of our gulet cruising. Just 8km from Marmaris, the resort of Icmeler is set in a wide sweeping bay against a backdrop of rugged mountains where you can relax on the sand and shingle beach beside the shallow calm waters, or enjoy a plethora of water sports and yacht and gulet cruises. The resort of Icmeler boasts a wide selection of lokantas for traditional lunches and suppers, a choice of international restaurants, cafés and bars, plus numerous shops and an indoor market. Hisaronu, a family friendly resort, offers restaurants, bars, shops and lively nightlife, and 20km away, one of our featured hotels, D Hotel Maris, is located on the Datca peninsula in a beautiful conservation area.

Classic Collection Holidays tailor-make all holidays and can book scheduled, charter or no frills flights from your local UK airport to Dalaman.

DALAMAN & TURQUOISE COAST SIGHTS

Icmeler

CAUNOS ROCK TOMBS

Overlooking Dalyan, the magnificent Caunos rock tombs, hewn into the cliff face, were built in the 9th century to house the dead kings of Caunos. Further remains of this ancient city comprise a collection of Greek-style theatres, Roman baths and temples.

DALYAN MUD BATHS

Believed to relieve rheumatism and rejuvenate the skin, wallowing in the famous natural sulphur mud baths in Dalyan is a must.

DIVING

The Dalaman area is great for diving with numerous dive schools offering PADI courses in all main resorts.

KAYA KOYU

Nestling in the mountains between Fethiye and Oludeniz, the UNESCO World Heritage site of Kaya Koyu is an eerie ghost village which, after having been allowed to fall into ruin since it was abandoned in 1920's, is now being actively restored.

GULETS

WHITE-WATER RAFTING

A three hour white-water rafting trip through fantastic canyons and thrilling rapids is available with professional guides on the Dalaman River.

EPHESUS

Although a long trip up the coast, the well preserved classical city of Ephesus is well worth a visit. Extensively restored remains include the Library of Celsus and a huge theatre, and nearby, the Ephesus Museum in Selcuk houses artefacts and mosaics found at the site.

PAMUKKALE & HIERAPOLIS

Close to Ephesus, and also worth the journey, is the awe-inspiring Pamukkale (see page 27) where calcium rich waters have hardened into deposits giving the hillside terraces a strange snow like beauty. A photographer's delight, visitors can enjoy the thermal waters of a nearby pool amongst the ruins of Hierapolis.

ANTALYA & MEDITERRANEAN COAST

This part of the Mediterranean coast known as the Turkish Riviera boasts stunning mountain scenery, beautiful beaches, secluded coves, and vast pine forests that are home to a myriad of flora and fauna. Coupled with numerous historical sites and a plethora of watersports, it simply provides the perfect holiday destination.

This popular holiday destination has a beautiful coastline of rocky headlands and secluded coves nestling between the spectacular Taurus Mountains and the shimmering crystal clear Mediterranean Sea. It offers well established sandy beach resorts, luxury hotels, more than 300 days of sunshine a year and many significant historical sites. The main resorts in the area include Antalya, Lara Beach boasting beautiful golden sandy beaches, Belek, a purpose built spa and golf resort and Side, with its wonderful blend of ancient and modern.

ANTALYA & LARA BEACH

Antalya, the largest city on the Mediterranean, is a thriving modern city with an interesting historic past. Situated high on a rocky coastline with a backdrop of the majestic Taurus Mountains it has successively been occupied by Romans, Byzantines, Seljuks and the Ottomans and there are many notable sites around Antalya worth exploring in addition to the beautiful mountains and gorgeous beaches. The picturesque old quarter, Kaleici, is the place to soak up the historic atmosphere of this sprawling city with its old wooden Ottoman mansions abutting the ancient city walls, many now being transformed into smart boutique hotels, and there's a maze of narrow winding streets leading down to the stylish and award winning marina with its myriad of waterfront cafés, restaurants and its vibrant nightlife. The Antalya area comprises numerous resorts including the superb beach resort of Lara. Situated 12km east of Antalya it boasts a beautiful long stretch of beach with wonderfully stylish and luxurious hotels. The coarse golden sandy beach shelves gently into the clear waters of the Mediterranean and there's every imaginable watersport on offer. There's a small selection of bars and restaurants in Lara Beach although nightlife is low key and mainly centred around the hotels.

BELEK & GOLF

Turkey's premier golf resort, Belek is 30km to the east of Antalya in a beautifully tranquil setting with a backdrop of mountains, fragrant pine forests and a glorious, 16km coarse golden sandy beach. This purpose built spa and golf resort has won awards for environmentally friendly development: the beach is a nesting ground for rare loggerhead sea turtles and the dense forest is a haven for 100 species of bird. Lavish beach front hotels provide a myriad of land and sea based activities, excellent spas and exquisite food, and, ideal for families, many offer an all inclusive option including children's clubs and activities. Additionally the wonderful climate and no less than 10 international standard courses in stunning surroundings provide a paradise for golfers.

SIDE

Set on a small peninsula, 75km east of Antalya, the popular and charming town of Side features a lovely blend of old and new. A plethora of ancient archaeological wonders including Roman baths, temples and an amphitheatre jostle for attention with the resort's modern beach front hotels, great shopping, vibrant nightlife and boasts two fabulous golden beaches.

ANTALYA & MEDITERRANEAN COAST SIGHTS

ANTALYA

Steeped in ancient history, Antalya features a number of interesting sights with the Seljuk 13th century Yivli Minare minaret taking centre stage and symbolising the city, and the Ottoman Murat Pasa Mosque with its beautiful tile decoration. The Antalya Archaeological Museum, one of the most important museums in Turkey, and the Atatürk Museum are both well worth visiting.

PERGE

Once an important city of the ancient world, St Paul visited Perge on his first missionary journey; today you can visit the well preserved ruins of the city's towers, a fine stadium with finely carved marble reliefs, and the public baths.

ASPENDOS

Built during the reign of the Roman Emperor Marcus Aurelius, the magnificent 15,000 seat Aspendos is one of the best preserved amphitheatres in the world. Boasting the most extraordinary acoustics, it plays host to a world renowned open-air opera and ballet festival each summer.

OLYMPOS

Situated just inland from a beautiful and unspoilt beach are the ruins of the ancient city of Olympos with baths, temple, a Roman theatre and necropolis delightfully hiding in the undergrowth of oleanders, wild figs and pines; all adding to the sense that this ancient city has just been rediscovered.

CAVES & WATERFALLS

For nature lovers there are many interesting caves and stunning waterfalls in this area. Visit the Karain Cave which, dating from the Palaeolithic Age, is the oldest known settlement in Turkey, walk behind the cascade of the Upper Düden waterfalls, and experience the tranquillity of the waterfalls at Kursunlu.

TERMESOS

Dramatically perched in a mountainous national park this ancient city boasts a magnificent theatre built into a cliff face with one edge on the side of a deep gorge - please note the climb up is rather arduous! There's also a large gymnasium, extensive baths and more than 100 tombs scattered about the hillside.

CLASSIC FLIGHTS & CAR HIRE

Choice of flights We know that our customers like to fly from a local airport that is convenient to them and because we tailor-make every holiday to suit you, we are able to book scheduled, charter or no frills flights from a wide range of UK airports. Please call our reservations team for further details regarding the services provided by different airlines.

Scheduled airlines These offer high frequency and often daily services to our destinations which allows you the luxury of choosing your departure day and holiday duration. Scheduled flights provide a high level of service and comfort, normally with generous legroom (typical seat pitch 31 inches), punctuality, meals relevant to the time of day, plus complimentary bar and in-flight entertainment. Scheduled services also give you the chance to upgrade to business and first class cabins. Classic Collection Holidays offers flights with all scheduled carriers.

British Airways Two cabin options are available: Euro Traveller and Club Europe. British Airways' Euro Traveller passengers in the main cabin enjoy the highest standards expected of British Airways including 31" seat pitch, meals and snacks relevant to the time of day and flight duration and complimentary drinks (wine, beer and spirits). One bag (maximum weight 23kg) per person can be checked into the hold free of charge.

Upgrades British Airways' flights offer a choice of cabin options dependent upon the route. Club Europe benefits include 33" seat pitch, meals and snacks relevant to the time of day and flight duration, complimentary drinks (wine, beer and spirits), dedicated check-in desks and the use of airport lounge facilities. Club Europe passengers also enjoy an increased luggage allowance and two bags (each weighing a maximum of 23kg) per person can be checked into the hold free of charge.

Domestic flight connections via London So that our customers can take advantage of the flexibility and reliability of scheduled flights from London, we are pleased to offer domestic flights from all UK airports.

No frills flights Often referred to as low cost airlines, these flights do not provide complimentary in-flight drinks, meals, or entertainment and seats are not normally allocated prior to boarding although families with young children are given priority boarding status. Prices vary dependent upon travel dates and when you book. We can easily include a no frills flight from your local airport, but if you wish to book your own no frills flight we are happy to book the rest of the holiday for you.

Charter flights Through a range of charter airline partners, we are delighted to offer a choice of direct flights from many UK airports. These flights may restrict your holiday duration to 7 or 14 nights, but we know that to fly direct to your holiday destination from your local airport is normally preferable.

Private jets Together with travel industry partner, FHR, Classic Collection Holidays enjoys a partnership with a fully licensed airline company which specialises in the provision of private executive aircraft. For total flexibility, privacy and convenience, we can charter a private aircraft giving you the ability to create your own holiday timetable to any of our destinations. You can choose the aircraft type, the seating arrangements, the level of service, your departure airport and the flight timings that suit you best.

Flight details Information including flight duration and flying days is provisional and is for guidance only and the right is reserved to substitute alternative airlines and/or aircraft (scheduled, charter or no frills). Brochured holiday prices are based on standard seats and airline rates applicable at the time of printing. Flight tickets are not transferable or refundable. All holidays are operated under CAA Licence (ATOL No. 5837).

Offset carbon emissions Classic Collection Holidays contributes more than £500 annually to offset the emission from our staff flights. To learn more about carbon emissions and to help reduce your own footprint, please visit www.reduceyourfootprint.travel

A UK driving licence, passport and car rental contract are minimum driving requirements, and in order to hire a car, you must have at least two years' driving experience and be at least 25 years of age (normal maximum 75 years of age). Please note that the types of car may vary within each group and delivery and/or collection charges may apply in some resort areas. Brochure accuracy This brochure was printed on 5 November 2012. Details are valid for departures from 1 January 2013 to 31 December 2013 or until publication of any revised edition, or you are notified otherwise by your travel agent or our reservations staff. All the facts in this brochure are re-checked for accuracy by our staff and, where possible, our hoteliers, although of course it is always feasible, especially in low season, that facilities may be unavailable as hotels, especially those which are open all year round, will require maintenance (eg pools), redecoration and refurbishment. Service within hotels may change from time to time eg dining changes from traditional waiter service to buffet style. Such events are regrettably beyond our control although we will alert you to significant changes at time of booking, or if you have already booked, we will contact you as soon as is reasonably possible if there is time before your departure.

Hotel details We are happy to advise hotel web addresses, but cannot accept responsibility for their accuracy.

Room types and upgrades Single rooms normally carry a supplement which is for the convenience of having a room to yourself and location/facilities may be inferior to that of a twin room. In family rooms and twin or double rooms that take additional beds, do note that the extra bed/s could be of a folding or convertible sofa type and beds for children may not be full adult-sized singles. When additional beds are put in a room, floor space will be reduced and cupboard access may be limited. Junior suites normally have a sitting area, and suites have a sitting area or separate sitting room. Ocean or sea view rooms enjoy views of the ocean/sea although foliage, buildings etc may sometimes interrupt a full view. Ocean facing or sea facing rooms will face the ocean/sea but will normally be on lower floors where the view of the ocean/sea may be obscured through gardens/trees etc. Side ocean view or side sea view rooms offer a restricted view of the ocean.

Room upgrade supplements are normally detailed on the hotel pages, but occasionally you may see the phrase on request which means that we will have to contact the hotel for up-to-date prices.

Hotel facilities normally incur a charge eg sun loungers, tennis, squash, mini-golf, pool table, watersports, entry to disco/nightclub, use of fitness/leisure and spa facilities, children's clubs, cots, safety deposit boxes and car parking.

Nights & meal arrangements The number of nights on your confirmation invoice refers to the number of nights reserved in your hotel. If you arrive late at night or in the early hours of the morning, your accommodation is immediately available as it has been reserved for the whole night and this will count as one of your holiday nights. If you have booked half or full board, you may lose a meal due to your time of arrival or departure and this will have been reflected in your holiday price. Full board normally consists of breakfast (usually continental buffet-style), lunch and dinner; half board is breakfast and dinner. Half board or full board arrangements, as indicated in the hotel descriptions, are generally served in the main dining room and are based on a standard table d'hote menu although this normally includes a choice of dishes. Many hotels offer buffet style meals and some a combination of waiter and buffet service. A full a la carte menu is available for an extra cost in most of our hotels and customers should note that when half or full board is offered as a la carte dining, exclusions such as lobster, prawns etc may be available for a local supplement. Most hotels offer the option of booking any number of nights on half or full board so that you can pay in the UK and decide which nights you wish to eat at the hotel when you arrive: simply ask our reservations staff for details.

Dress code Due to the sophisticated nature of many of our hotel restaurants, shorts and t-shirts are unacceptable for evening dining and slightly more formal attire is recommended.

Children & infants Some children's prices are detailed on our hotel pages but owing to space restrictions, we cannot detail all relevant prices and you should contact our reservations department for specific prices. To take advantage of children's prices, a child must normally be aged 2-11 years at the date of return and must share a room with two adults or full fare paying passengers, although some hotels offer special reductions for a second child sharing the room, or for older children, or for a child travelling with one adult, or where children share an interconnecting room. Children paying child prices can normally benefit from reduced half board supplements (when booking same board basis as adults) and will not normally be charged room supplements although if these are payable, relevant prices will be advised at time of booking. Normally children staying in their own room will be charged as full fare paying passengers including relevant room and half board supplements. Please note that where children's reductions are relevant, their date of birth and age on the date of return from holiday must be advised on the booking form. Infants (under two years of age at date of return) pay a charge to cover our administration costs and additional charges may be levied for certain flights, inter-island connections or business class cabins. Hotels will charge locally for food and cots. Please note that the regulations applied to the manufacture of cots in other countries are not as high as those in the UK and may not conform to British safety standards. Also please note that the date of birth and age of infants on return from holiday must be advised on the booking form.

Child seats Although we can request child seats for private transfers in resort, they cannot always be guaranteed and in such cases we suggest that you bring your own. (see complimentary BubbleBum offer page 13)

Babysitting arrangements are available at many properties although the service will vary and the sitter may not remain in the room with the child. If you wish to use a babysitting service, you must arrange and pay for it locally with the sitter who is frequently a member of the hotel staff not qualified in child care.

Check in/out On arrival at hotels, check in time is normally 4pm and check out 12 noon. Most hotels can provide luggage storage and changing room facilities if you arrive earlier or stay later and you may be able to pay locally for a late check out: simply contact your hotel reception.

Health & safety All our properties are checked regularly for compliance in respect of local regulations. However, guests must exercise caution particularly with regard to fire safety, swimming pools, balconies, lifts etc, where compliance may not be equal to British standards.

Resort development may be in progress and occasionally the work involved will result in building work being in evidence. We cannot forewarn of all developments, however, if the works taking place, either through noise or other inconvenience, is felt by us to affect your overall holiday enjoyment, we will supply all such information to you directly or via your travel agent. Many of our resorts are in popular holiday destinations which invariably have busy road networks so you may encounter some traffic disturbance especially during peak season.

Representation Due to the specialist nature of our programme it is not always practical to visit our guests in their hotel particularly where multi-centres, island hopping or fly drive holidays are booked. All customers will be given emergency contact numbers, and departure details will be confirmed on arrival in resort. Our resort representative or local agent will normally make contact within 24 hours of your arrival to ensure that everything is in order, although should you encounter any difficulties during your stay, please contact your hotel manager in the first instance, and if further assistance is required, simply contact our resort manager or local agent who will endeavour to resolve the problem.

CLASSIC BOOKING CONDITIONS

Our commitment to you

1. Provision of your holiday We will arrange for the provision to you of the services which make up the inclusive holiday as confirmed to you. These services will be provided either directly by us or by independently contracted suppliers. When you, or your travel agent ask for your holiday booking to be confirmed, we allocate your chosen holiday to you and give confirmation of the booking at that moment. It is then that a firm contract exists between you and Classic Collection Holidays Limited (Registered in England no. 1512421) on the basis of this brochure. This also acts as your acceptance of our booking conditions and your holiday is secured from that moment. If your holiday includes flight arrangements, you will be issued with an ATOL certificate immediately and we will later send you or your travel agent a holiday confirmation invoice verifying the details and prices of the holiday that you have already booked, which in most cases will have been confirmed by telephone. All holidays and offers advertised in this brochure are subject to availability.

2. Your holiday price

A. When you book All prices, supplements and offers shown in this brochure are based on costs at time of printing (5 November 2012) although we reserve the right to amend all prices, supplements and offers (up or down) when we receive notification of new costs. Some hotels intentionally practice fluid pricing which means that their costs (reflected in our prices) may significantly increase during periods of high demand. This may affect the hotel's standard room prices although the most significant changes will be noticed when booking superior room types. Prices in this brochure include airline rates applicable at the time of printing and although these rates will generally be available for the validity of the brochure, occasionally during periods of excess demand, when the relevant class is unavailable, we will book the next available fare class which may result in you paying a higher price than that promoted in this brochure. The government charges a levy to cover financial protection in the event of an airline failure and we automatically add this to your invoice total at the booking stage. Once you have confirmed your holiday booking, the price is protected subject to clause 2D of these booking conditions.

B. VAT and Exchange rates Our VAT Registration number is 503 944 749 and all prices quoted in this brochure include VAT where relevant (at 20% at time of going to press). The brochure prices of holidays were calculated using exchange rates quoted in the Financial Times Guide to World Currencies on 5 October 2012 in relation to the following currencies: Euro 1.2399, US Dollar 1.6193. Please note a) these rates are not comparable with note or tourist rates which are quoted in national newspapers b) hotel costs, transfers, resort representation, excursions, local taxes and part of the flight cost are typically paid in the currency of your holiday destination country. Aviation fuel is paid in US Dollars. All of these costs are affected by changes in the cost of buying foreign currency, as per exchange rates listed above. We reserve the right to increase our prices in accordance with these booking conditions.

C. Price Promise If you can find the same flight inclusive holiday at a cheaper price at the time that you book, we undertake to match the price and will give an additional £10 per adult saving off any competitor's price. In order to take advantage of our Price Promise, the component parts of the relevant holiday must be identical and we reserve the right to request confirmation in writing of the relevant competitor's holiday price. Our Price Promise cannot be actioned retrospectively after a booking has been made, and it is only available on new bookings made during the validity of this brochure. Unfortunately we cannot always match prices where we believe our competitors have made a pricing error or where they are offering the holiday arrangements at a price below their operating costs. If a competitor's price is greater than £150 per adult and/or £50 per child below our price, we deem one of these two scenarios to be true and will not honour our Price Promise.

D. Surcharges (after booking) Once you have booked, the price of your holiday travel arrangements may be varied due to changes in transportation costs such as fuel, scheduled airfares and any other airline cost changes which are part of the contract between airlines (and their agents) and the tour operator or organiser, and also in respect of government action such as changes in VAT or any other government imposed changes. In the case of any small variation, an amount equivalent to 2% of the price of your travel arrangements, and any amendment charges, will be absorbed or retained. For larger variations, this 2% will still be absorbed for increases but not retained from refunds. In either case there will be an administration charge of £1 per person together with an amount to cover agent's commission. In the unlikely event that this means that you have to pay an increase of more than 10% of the price of your holiday travel arrangements, you may cancel your booking and receive a full refund of all monies paid, except for any amendment charges. Should you decide to cancel for this reason, you must exercise your right to do so within 14 days from the issue date printed on your final invoice.

3. If your booking is changed It is unlikely that your booking will have to be changed, but we do plan the arrangements many months in advance, therefore we reserve the right to do so at any time. Most of these changes are very minor, but where they are major, we will inform you or your travel agent as soon as reasonably possible if there is time before your departure. A major change is one that is made to a major part of your holiday arrangements before departure, such as a change of your departure airport (except between London airports), resort area or time of departure or return by more than twelve hours, or offering accommodation with a lower category rating. If we have to make a major change you have the choice of the following: A accepting the changed arrangements as notified to you, B purchasing another available holiday from us, or C cancelling your holiday and receiving a full refund of all monies paid.

Additionally, if we make a major change after you have paid the full balance of your holiday and you accept A, B or C you will be entitled to compensation on the scale shown below.

Period before scheduled departure within which a major change is notified to you or your travel agent:	Compensation per adult
More than 56 days	Nil
43-56 days	£20
29-42 days	£30
15-28 days	£40
0-14 days	£50

Important note Compensation payments do not apply to changes caused by reason of war or threat of war, riot, civil strife, terrorist activity, industrial disputes, natural and nuclear disasters, fire, or other circumstances that may amount to force majeure.

4. If your holiday is cancelled We reserve the right in any circumstance to cancel your holiday and, in this event, we will return to you all money you have paid us or will offer you an alternative holiday of comparable standard to purchase. In no case, except for those beyond our control, will your holiday be cancelled after the balance is paid and in such cases compensation will be paid per clause 3.

5. What happens to complaints Disputes arising out of, or in connection with, this contract which cannot be settled amicably may be referred to arbitration if the customer so wishes, under a special scheme arranged by the Association of British Travel Agents (ABTA). The ABTA scheme provides for a relatively simple and inexpensive method of arbitration on documents alone with restricted liability on the customer with regards to cost. Under the scheme, customers must pursue their claim within 12 months of the date of return from their holiday. (Outside this time limit, arbitration under the scheme may still be available if the Company agrees, although the ABTA scheme does not require such agreement). The scheme does not apply to claims for amounts greater than £5,000 per person or £25,000 per booking, neither does it apply to claims which are solely in respect of physical injury or illness or their consequences. However, the scheme can deal with compensation claims which include an element of minor injury or illness subject to a per person limit of £1,000 on the personal injury or illness element of the claim. Full details can be provided by us, or can be obtained from ABTA at www.abta.com.

6. Our responsibility for your holiday We accept responsibility for ensuring that all component parts of the inclusive holiday, limited to items included on confirmation invoice are supplied to you as described in this brochure and to a reasonable standard. If any such part is not provided to your satisfaction due to the fault of our employees, agents, or suppliers, we will pay you appropriate compensation if this has affected the enjoyment of your holiday (see Important note in paragraph 3 above). Our liability in this respect is limited to a maximum of three times the value of the holiday. We must ask you however, to be patient and understanding in the event of unforeseen alterations to your holiday made by our suppliers over whom we have no direct control.

7. Excursions (whilst participating in arrangements made by us)

Excursions or other tours that you may choose to book or pay for whilst you are on holiday are not part of the holiday provided by us. For any excursion or other tour that you book, your contract is with the operator of the excursion or tour and not with us and we are not responsible for the provision of the excursion or tour or for anything that happens during the course of its provision.

8. Personal Injury (whilst participating in arrangements made by us)

We have taken all reasonable and proper steps to ensure that proper arrangements have been made for all the holidays which are advertised in this brochure and that the suppliers of the various services which will be provided to you as part of the inclusive holiday are efficient, safe and reputable businesses, and that they comply with the local and national laws and regulations of the country in which they provide those services. We have no direct control over the provision of services to customers by suppliers. However, subject to the Notes below, we will pay to our customers the equivalent of such damages as they would be entitled to receive under English law in an English Court for any personal injury to the customer, including illness or death, caused by the negligence, as understood in English Law, of the servants or agents of ourselves or of any of our suppliers contracted or sub-contracted by us to provide any part of the arrangements for your holiday as described in this brochure. With regard to any relevant international convention for example, the Montreal Convention in respect of travel by air, the Athens Convention in respect of travel by sea, the Berne Convention in respect of travel by rail, and the Paris Convention in respect of the provision of accommodation, which limit the amount of compensation that you can claim for death, injury, delay to passengers and loss, damage and delay to luggage, we are to be regarded as having all benefit of any limitation of compensation contained in these or any conventions. Copies of these can be made available on request.

Air Passenger Rights

Under EU law you have rights in some circumstances to refunds and/or compensation from your airline in cases of denied boarding, cancellation or delay to flights. Full details of these rights will be publicised at EU airports and will also be available from airlines. However reimbursement in such cases is the responsibility of the airline and will not automatically entitle you to a refund of your holiday cost from us. Your right to a refund and/or compensation from us is set out in paragraph 3. If your airline does not comply with these rules you should complain to the Air Transport Users' Council on 020 7240 6061 www.auc.org.uk

9. Personal Injury (Unconnected with travel arrangements made by us)

If you, or any member of your party, suffer death, illness or injury whilst overseas arising out of an activity which does not form part of your holiday arrangements or an excursion arranged through us, we shall at our discretion, offer advice, guidance and assistance. Where legal action is contemplated and you want our assistance, you must obtain our written consent prior to commencement of proceedings. Our consent will be given subject to you undertaking to assign any costs or benefits received, under any relevant insurance policy to ourselves. We limit the cost of our assistance to you or any member of your party to £5,000. Under your travel insurance cover, you must make an insurance claim under the legal expenses section in respect of any legal fees incurred abroad for that purpose.

Notes in respect of paragraphs 8 & 9 We would request that you (a) notify us of any claim for personal injury within 2 months of your return from holiday; (b) assign to Classic Collection Holidays any rights against a supplier or any other person or party you may have relating to the claim; and (c) agree to co-operate fully with us should our insurers wish to enforce those rights. This assignment is necessary to enable us to try to recover from suppliers any compensation paid to customers and associated costs as a result of personal injury to customers caused by the negligence of those suppliers. It is not our wish to profit from such assignment, and in the unlikely event of our recovering more than such compensation and costs, any excess will be paid to the injured customers.

Your commitment to Classic Collection Holidays

1. Your holiday contract As soon as your holiday booking is confirmed, you must sign a booking form accepting our booking conditions. Your contract is made on the terms of these booking conditions which are governed by English law and the jurisdiction of the English Courts. You may however choose the law and jurisdiction of Scotland or Northern Ireland if you wish to do so. Any disputes arising will be heard in the English Courts unless you prefer the courts of Scotland or Northern Ireland.

2. Payment for the holiday You pay a deposit of £150 per person (or 10% of total cost if greater, or an agreed sum to cover costs where flight seats are purchased at time of booking) when you book. This is your commitment until 8 weeks before departure when your final balance is due. You must pay the balance at least 8 weeks before departure. For bookings within 8 weeks to departure, full payment is required at time of booking. If payment is not received as above, we reserve the right to treat your booking as cancelled and your deposit/s would be forfeited. If you pay money for your holiday to an ABTA travel agent, they will hold that money as our agent from the time they receive it until they pay the money to us. All credit card payments incur a charge (1% at time of printing but subject to change)

3. If you change your booking If you want to change any details of your booking (eg transfer to a different holiday, departure date or airport), we will do our best to help as soon as we receive your request in writing. We charge an amendment fee of £25 per person named on the booking form for each detail of the booking changed and, in addition to the amendment fee, we will charge for any additional costs we incur in making the amendment/s. Please note that it is highly likely that amendment costs will increase the closer the change is made to your departure date.

IMPORTANT

Some travel arrangements (eg flight tickets purchased specifically from certain airlines and certain hotel bookings) may not be refundable or transferable after a reservation has been made and any alteration request may incur a cancellation charge of up to 100% of that particular part of the holiday arrangements.

Where the price varies depending on the number of persons travelling and the numbers are amended, the price will be recharged on the basis of the new party size. Any increase in price per person payable as a result of a part cancellation is not a cancellation charge and will not normally be covered by your chosen insurance. A separate cancellation charge will be levied in respect of bookings cancelled in accordance with paragraph 4 below. A new confirmation invoice will be issued as appropriate on which the cancellation charges will be shown.

4. If you cancel your booking You or any member of your party may cancel your booking, or part of it, once it has been confirmed, but the instructions will only be valid if in writing and signed by the person who signed the booking form. Your written instructions should go either to the travel agent you booked with, asking them to notify us immediately, or if you booked direct, to our address. To compensate us for the expense of processing your booking, payment of cancellation fees are on the scale shown. The amount payable (by whomever signed the booking form) depends on when we receive your written instructions.

More than 56 days	Deposit/initial payment
43-56 days	30% or deposit if greater
29-42 days	50% or deposit if greater
15-28 days	70% or deposit if greater
8-14 days	90% or deposit if greater
7 days to departure date or after	100%

NB. You may make a claim if your cancellation falls within the terms of your travel insurance policy.

5. If you have a complaint If you have a complaint about your holiday please refer the matter to the supplier immediately (airline, hotel, car hire etc). If further assistance is required our agent/representative in resort should be contacted. Matters can most easily be resolved for you on the spot, when the supplier can see and understand the exact nature of any problems you have. It is unreasonable to take no action whilst on holiday, then complain afterwards. In the unlikely event that matters cannot be resolved to your satisfaction our agent/representative will ask you to record details on a holiday report form of which you will be given a copy, and you must then follow up your report by writing to our Customer Services Department within 28 days of returning from resort.

6. Holiday participation We reserve the right to decline to accept or retain any person as a customer if their conduct is disruptive and affects the enjoyment of other holidaymakers, and we shall be under no liability for any extra costs incurred by such a person as a result of our doing so. Aircraft captains are legally entitled to deny boarding to any passenger presenting themselves at the aircraft who, at the captain's absolute discretion, are unacceptably under the influence of alcohol or drugs. Any passenger who is denied boarding on the outbound flight for that reason, shall be deemed to have given notice of cancellation of his/her booking at that moment, and cancellation charges will apply in accordance with paragraph 4.

7. Your accommodation The accommodation provided is only for the use of passengers shown on the confirmation invoice as confirmed by us; subletting, sharing or assignment is prohibited.

8. Your travel ticket conditions When you travel with an air or sea carrier, their conditions of carriage apply, some of which limit liability. These conditions are often the subject of international agreements between countries, and copies of the conditions which apply are available for inspection at the travel agent where you book your holiday.

9. Data Protection Act Classic Collection Holidays is registered under the Data Protection Act 1998 and will deal with all personal data you provide to us in accordance therewith. It is necessary for us to pass on your personal data to airlines, hotels, transportation companies, insurers and other agents in order to arrange the holiday you require. By making a booking or a booking enquiry with Classic Collection Holidays you have consented to allow the passing on of such data as we determine necessary for that purpose. Under the Data Protection Act, you have the right to inspect any relevant personal information held by us.
