Aurora

Aurora is a mid-sized cruise ship, instantly recognisable thanks to her elegant tiered stern. Aurora is designed as a classic ocean going vessel and is therefore ideally suited to world cruising. At her heart is a Lalique-inspired waterfall which forms the centrepiece of her atrium – one of her signature features.

When it comes to bars she offers a variety to suit every mood including her Crow's Nest bar, which offers a great view of every port along the way (and the oceans in between), Champions sports bar and Anderson's with its rather sophisticated wood panelled walls. Entertainment wise there's the Playhouse cinema which shows recently released films, a show lounge and theatre.

Her dining options include her two main restaurants, as well as a bistro by Marco Pierre White and an al fresco grill restaurant.

P&O Cruises Aurora also welcomes families with children's clubs and a dedicated family pool. She even has one pool which can be covered by a sky dome.
