A Holiday with true romance and adventure, starting in the Catalan Capitol, Barcelona, with all the sights and sounds that make this one of Europe's most popular cities, you'll get chance to savour the sights and sounds, and maybe even try out some Tappas, before joining NCL's Norwegian Jade. A ship that has so much to offer, you will find it hard to take yourself ashore. But we are off to some fascinating places, like Casablanca, of all the places, in all the world, yes, you know how the rest goes. Then Agadir where you can barter for a bargain in one of the soukes, then off to the land of eternal sunshine, Gran Canaria, before we have a day on Madeira, sampling the delights of this lush tropical island. Then back via Malaga, where we can sample real Flamenco, or try a true Paella, before we cruise back into Barcelona and our flight home, complete with memories, and probably some fantastic souvenirs.

If you are looking for the kind of holiday where you get to see so much of Europe's culture and history in less than 2 weeks, this could be the holiday for you. Starting in the Catalan Capitol of Barcelona, with it's Ramblas, Olympic Stadium, not to forget the Nou Camp Stadium, there really is so much to see, after a night in this vibrant city we are off on the Norwegian Jade, and where better to head for than the eternal city, Rome. Don't forget to take a coin for the trevi fountain! From there we are off to Athens, home of the Olympics, and so much to see in just a day before we cruise Izmir in Turkey to visit Ephesus. The Egyptian port of Alexandria where we can visit the Pyramids. After another day cruising, we call into the historic island of Malta, with its massive fort in Valletta, and a curious mixture of Britain and the Mediterranean, there is even a Marks & Spencer! Eventually we head back to Barcelona, relaxed tanned, and better informed about the history of the Mediterranean.

This is almost the perfect holiday for couples and families alike. A week at the Punta Del Mar, which is a good hotel, right on the headland looking out across the bay of Santa Ponsa in Majorca, with it's fine sand and warm shallow waters. Then once you have relaxed and got to work on the tan, it's time to join The Grandeur of the Sea, which is almost a floating resort in itself. This is a classic Mediterranean cruise taking in all the hot spots you would expect the chic resorts of Cannes and Monte Carlo, take in a piece of Tuscany and see the leaning tower of Pisa before we set sail for Rome, and your chance to take in the Vatican City, or maybe the Coliseum. We even have chance to take a relaxing full day on Sicily before cruising back to Palma for our flight home.

Day 10	Malaga – Fly back to UK

This is a great way to relax and enjoy the best of the Mediterranean. We start by flying to the fabulous Costa del Sol where we have chance to relax and unwind on the beach front Tryp Hotel for 2 nights, soaking up the Spanish sunshine. We then join the Adventure of the Seas, almost a resort in itself, with all the fabulous facilities you would expect on a Royal Caribbean Cruise Lines ship. Our first port of call is Valencia, home of the Paella and flamenco! We then have a day cruising, so we can take advantage of all the on board facilities, before we have a day in Rome, the eternal city. Continuing along the Italian coast, we then have a chance to visit Tuscany's 2 great attractions Florence or Pisa. We then cruise across to the Island of Corsica for a day of sun bathing or sight seeing before we spend another day relaxing as we cruise the med, and back to Malaga and our flight home.
