Russia, Korea, and a River Cruise tour of China On the Legend Of The Seas &

Departs: 15th September 2011

Duration: 28 Nights

Fares From:

£5,599

Per Person:

On the Legend of the Seas, after a night's hotel accommodation in Tokyo we start our cruise, calling at Aomari and Otaru in Japan, before reaching Russia's largest port Vladivostok, boasting sweeping boulevards and century old building, we then continue on to a land of contrast, Buson in South Korea, before reaching Shanghai, where we disembark for a five night stay, until we join our River Cruise.

Our river tour of China starts with a tour of Old Shanghai and travel along the elegant Bund. We then visit a silk carpet workshop for a demonstration and tour the Shanghai Museum. Dine in a local restaurant before seeing the world-famous Shanghai Acrobatic Troupe show from the best seats in the house. The next morning you are free to further explore Shanghai. After lunch, we fly to Wuhan and transfer to our ship, docked close to Wuhan's historic waterfront. You are welcomed aboard with a Western meal. The following day, we visit an elementary school where you are greeted and entertained by the children, then return to your ship. For the next 150 miles, you travel the most scenic stretch of the Yangtze through a spectacular series of limestone ridges known as the Three Gorges. The following day we cruise through Xiling Gorge, the longest of the Three Gorges. After lunch, disembark for a tour of the Three Gorges Dam where you learn about this immense engineering masterpiece and what it means for the Chinese people and the Yangtze. We then sail through the five-stage locks of the Three Gorges Dam. Dock overnight at Badong.

We then cruise through Wu (Witches) Gorge, renowned for its magnificent scenery. Then, board a smaller boat for an excursion through the lesser Three Gorges. We then visit Shibaozhai Temple, a 12-story pavilion built in 1650. Tour the pavilion and temple. We also enjoy a brief tour of Chongqing, the largest city in western China. We also visit the Chongqing Zoo to see the giant pandas and other exotic species. We then fly to Xian, the following day we tour the mausoleum where Emperor Qin Shi Haung was laid to rest over 2,000 years ago. See the thousands of life-sized terra cotta warriors, archers, infantrymen and horses that were buried with him. We then continue our River Cruise to finish in Beijing, China's former imperial capital, where we spend 3 nights with many tours and excursions included. A final destination for a break of your journey home for 2 nights in Dubai.

PRINCESS CRUISES

escape completely™

Departs: 17th January 2012

Duration: 21 Nights

Fares From:

£2,999

Per Person:

Diamond Princess is a luxury destination in itself. Wake each morning in anticipation of a new horizon. Take in the view from one of nearly 740 balcony staterooms. Indulge in a hot stone massage at the renowned Lotus spa, enjoy fine dining in a formal or relaxed atmosphere and make it a cruise to remember.

Start your holiday experience off with a 2 nights stay in a 4 star Dubai hotel. Dubai has been called the "shopping capital of the Middle East," as well as the shopping paradise of the world. Dubai alone has more than 70 shopping malls, and the world's largest shopping mall, Dubai Mall. With the largest man made harbour in the world, it also has some fantastic beach resorts to relax and enjoy the excellent weather.

Then we fly onto Auckland for a further 2 nights before joining Diamond Princess. Although this is the largest city in New Zealand, with a population of just 1.4 Million, it is also less crowded than many of its counterparts around the world. Auckland is popularly known as the "City of Sails" because the harbour is often dotted with hundreds of yachts and has more per capita than any other city in the world. High Street, Queen Street, Ponsonby Road, and Karangahape Road are very popular with urban socialites, while Otara's and Avondale's flea markets offer a colourful alternative shopping experience.

Disembark the Diamond Princess and transfer to Sydney Harbour Marriott (or similar) for 2 nights. The largest city in Australia, known as the harbour city, with it's iconic buildings, like the opera house and the Sydney harbour bridge. The city is home to many prominent parks, such as Hyde Park, Royal Botanical gardens and national parks. This is a major factor, along with Sydney Harbour, that has led to the city's reputation as one of the most beautiful in the world.
